Publishing

Welcome...

The SAGE Rights Team is pleased to present our Global Rights Catalogue for 2016-2017!

SAGE publishes over 800 titles a year, working closely with our acclaimed authors to create a wide range of publications for the Humanities and Social Sciences. Above all, our editorial team is dedicated to producing innovative and high-quality content.

In this catalogue, we are particularly pleased to recommend:

- Democracy in Decline by Philip Kotler (p.23)
- Visible Learning for Mathematics, K-12 by John A Hattie et al (p.13)
- Statistics for People Who (Think They) Hate Statistics, Sixth Edition by Neil J Salkind (p.33)

Our catalogue only includes a small selection of forthcoming titles and bestsellers. For a complete list of SAGE titles, please visit our website or view our subject catalogues for this publication year.

If you are a publisher and would like to receive updates on new titles, please email us at foreign-rights@sagepub.co.uk, listing any subject area of special interest. Please contact us to confirm the availability of rights in your language, request review copies and arrange translation agreements.

We would like to take this opportunity to thank you for your ongoing support and interest in our titles.

We hope that you will find this catalogue useful and look forward to working with you!

SAGE SWIFTS SERIES

In 1976 SAGE published a series of short 'university papers', which led to the publication of the QASS series (or the 'little green books' as they became known to researchers). At 40 years since the release of the first 'little green book', SAGE is delighted to offer a new series of swift, short and topical pieces in the ever-growing digital environment.

SAGE Swifts offer authors a new channel for academic research with the freedom to deliver work outside the conventional length of journal articles. The series aims to give authors speedy access to academic audiences through digital first publication, space to explore ideas thoroughly, yet at a length which can be readily digested, and the quality stamp and reassurance of peer-review.
