

Table 5.1 Framework for recording outcomes from a reflective enquiry family walkthrough

ASPECT	OBSERVATIONS AND COMMENTS
Engagement The extent to which families are positively engaged with family learning and other family activities available on-site; the family behaviours observed, e.g. are they happy, having fun, getting on with others?
Purpose The expected learning outcomes from family learning and other family activities; appropriateness of activities being undertaken by families on-site; families' response to the activities on offer.
Approach Are the approaches being used by those delivering the family learning and other family activities appropriate? How are families responding to these approaches? Are the families learning new skills and new learning to help them support their children's learning and well-being outside the educational setting?
Environment How welcoming, family-friendly and accessible is the main reception area? Is the Family Room on-site suitable for multi-purpose use? Is the signage clear around the educational setting for families visiting the premises for the first time? Is the information for families on noticeboards clear and available in different formats?
Reflection What are your thoughts and feelings about what you have observed? Which improvements would you wish to see in relation to making the premises more family-friendly? What one question from today's walkthrough do you wish to ask and explore further with the head teacher?

Photocopiable:

Family Partnership Working © Rita Cheminai, 2011 (SAGE)